

Missouri Department of Transportation

Code: R02350

Title: Intermediate Traffic Signal and Lighting Technician

Exemption Status: Non-Exempt

Grade: 11

Job Description

Effective Date 02-01-2017

Replaces (Effective Date) 09-01-2014

General Summary The intermediate traffic signal and lighting technician performs duties related to the installation, maintenance and repair of traffic signals, roadway lighting, communications equipment, and other electronic devices. Responsibilities are performed under moderate supervision.

Minimum/Required Qualifications High School Diploma or GED/HiSET, plus completion of a formal post-secondary technical training program in one or more of the following: electrical, electronics or networking (of at least 30 credit hours and one school year in duration).
Certification of discipline you are applying for:
International Municipal Signal Association Level I Certification Traffic Signals and/or International Municipal Signal Association Level I Certification Roadway Lighting
Valid Class B Commercial Driver's License with no air brake restriction and interstate status (either Excepted Interstate [EI] or Non-Excepted Interstate [NI]).
Two years of experience in signal, lighting, and/or radio maintenance.
Successful completion of a work simulation examination and a medical-physical examination.

Supervisory Responsibilities None

Location District Offices -Traffic

Special Working Conditions/Job Characteristics Job requires heavy physical exertion and effort, including the ability to move materials by hand, operate hand tools, and perform stationary flagging.
Job requires exposure to physical hazards, health and safety risks, and/or adverse or otherwise undesirable characteristics in the environment.
Job requires exposure to working at heights requiring the use of fall protection and aerial boom equipment.
Job may require operation of vehicles to plow snow and spread ice control materials.

Examples of Work

(1) Responds to emergency calls, such as malfunctioning equipment and traffic crashes involving equipment for signals, lighting, Intelligent Transportation System (ITS), aviation and navigational lighting, and communication systems, and takes appropriate action.

- (2) Investigates and responds to customer service reports with regard to signal and lighting operations and other electronic/electrical traffic control devices.
- (3) Responds to routine and emergency utility locate requests from Missouri One Call.
- (4) Schedules and checks the installation, repair, and maintenance of traffic signal equipment, radio communication equipment, ITS, roadway, aviation and navigational lighting, and other electronic/electrical traffic control devices.
- (5) Provides training to employees on safety, fleet equipment, technical procedures, and related topics.
- (6) Provides expertise in signal, lighting, or other electronic/electrical traffic control devices during construction project development and implementation.
- (7) Reads and interprets signal circuit plans and schematics for trouble shooting problems with electronic/electrical components.
- (8) Serves as lead in utilizing software to communicate with and program electronic traffic control devices and radio communication equipment.
- (9) Attends contract meetings and oversees the inspection of contracts regarding signal and lighting equipment or other electronic/electrical traffic control devices.
- (10) Performs advanced installation, repair and trouble shooting of communication devices, including fiber networks, wireless devices, and radios.
- (11) Makes recommendations regarding equipment and material needs, maintains inventory of electronic/electrical parts and supplies, and orders or purchases replacement parts.
- (12) Ensures completion of the department's signal and lighting preventive maintenance programs.
- (13) Maintains required records and documentation on the installation, maintenance, repair, or replacement of signals, lighting, and communication equipment.
- (14) Performs other responsibilities as required or assigned.

The Missouri Department of Transportation promotes an equal opportunity workplace that includes reasonable accommodation of otherwise disabled applicants and employees. Please see your manager should you have any questions about this policy or these job duties.